WESTERY CHOIR BOYS' FROLIC

Lasts for Three Pleasurable Days—Mitchell-Pierce Wedding—Elks Visit Providence—Chief Bransfield In Philadelphia.

The choir of the Seventh Day Baptist church concluded their three days' series of festivities Thursday, the choir party numbering about eighty. Monday evening they enjoyed a musical at the residence of John Tanner. Tuesday they had a clambake and picnic at Brightman's pond, and on Wednesday a picnic at Wheeler's grove, on the line of the Groton-Stonington trolley in the morning, and in the afternoon the party visited Old Fort Griswold and the Groton monument. While the pleasurable events were under the auspices of the choir, many other church members participated.

The Anderson family, with fine summer residence off the Watch Hill road, with the Pawcatuck river in the rear and the Atlantic ocean on the side, one of the most admired beauty spots in the whole town of Westery. Just across the street from the school and silage to the Anderson estate is the property recently acquired by Herman Dock, and upon which he is planning to build a handsome summer home, in keeping with the general surroundings.

The story goes that the Andersons had tried in vain to purchase the property from Stanton Thompson, the former owner, and that Mr. Dock had been offered a tempting bonus for his purchase, as they wanted to control that property as a sort of protection for their present holding. It is said that they have no objection to the Dock's neighbors, but they fear the whole of the property, six acres, will not be entirely used for residential purposes.

Mr. Dock is the patentee and inventor of the Dock gas engines, is a natural inventor, a thorough machinist, and has a general liking for mechanics. It is therefore but natural that he would have a private workshop near his home, equipped with machinery, and this would occasion more or less noise when in operation.

Mr. Dock might also have a few machines to aid him in his inventions. In fact he has now in his employ a chauffeur, a practical machinist, who set up the Dock engine before the plant in Hope Valley was burned, and whose qualifications are so satisfactory to Mr. Dock that he has been retained in his employ at full pay, work or play. Besides this ob-servable mechanic there are two in the garage, and with a machinistchauffeur who would make all needed repairs, there would be more or less noise from that source.

The Andersons are among the most democratic of the summer visitors, and come here from Cincinnati to spend the summer in peace and quiet.

The Dock's are year-around residents and are equally popular with the people. Mr. Dock has consideration for the peace and quiet of his own home, and those who know him best declare that the reported conversion of his newly acquired property into an industrial place is without foundation.

William Mitchell, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Myrtle Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Pierce, were married at the residence of the bride's father, in High Street, on Wednesday evening by Rev. Clayton A.
Burdick, in presence of relatives. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are now on an evening train to spend their honeymoon in Portland, Me., and Portsmouth, N. H.

George E. Champlin, injured by being thrown from his cart in a collision by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is one way to cure it, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube becomes inflamed, a formation of pus, or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. Send for circular, free. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

For Quick Relief from Hay Fever, asthma and summer bronchitis, take Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly relieves the discomfort and suffering and the annoying symptoms disappear. It soothes and heals the inflamed air passages of the head, throat and bronchial tubes. It contains no opiates and no harmful drugs, and is a safe substitute. Lee & Osgood Co.

The Little Candy Cold Cure Tablets, called Preventives, will in a few hours safely check all colds or grippe. Try them; 48-25c. Sold by Lee & Osgood Co.

sented a resolution making an appropriation for furniture to replace that destroyed by fire in the Third district court office in Westery, at the time of the burning of the Barber Memorial building. The resolution was referred to the committee on finance, of which Senator Arnold is chairman.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

To Be Formed in Bristol to Assist Old Soldiers in Patriotic Work.

Bristol is to have a memorial association if present plans are carried out. Last spring a camp of Sons of Veterans was formed and over twenty names were secured. But it is thought that the work of such an organization should be on broader lines and that every citizen of the town should have an opportunity to be a member of the organization that assists the old soldiers and perpetuates the memory of their struggle. The idea is to have a very small fee, about 25 cents a year, and to have the membership open to both men and women. With committees appointed to care for the work of decorating the soldiers' monuments and such other work as needs to be done. The matter is to be agitated this fall.

LESSON FOR THE WHOLE RACE.

Harmony That Might Be If Each Would But Do His Part.

There is no prettier sight in the world than a column of choir boys entering a church and singing the professional as they slowly march to the altar, declares a writer in the Columbus Journal. There is youth in its sweetest aspect—bright-faced boys in all their health and hope, engaged in a beautiful religious ceremony, stepping in harmony to the fairest ideals of worship. But it is more than a mere ceremony. It has a lesson for all—a lesson of the happiest import. For that little boy in the procession—caped in white, the sunrise on his brow, and singing out of his heart a noble melody. He is only a part of a great harmony, and if he does his part, content to be simply one to blend his voice in the sweet strain of worship.

The lesson touches closely human experience. Here we are, a great crowd gathered on the earth, each one engaged in some equal, to his country, to humanity, to home, to business, or perhaps some poorer one—how like that little boy in the procession—might it be, if every one would add a beautiful note to the harmony of life and lose himself in the procession marching toward the altars of the common good.

TRAINING THE FEEBLE STEPS.

Cent School Was a Worthy Ancestor of the Kindergarten.

A cent school is so called because the children who come to it bring each one cent, clutched tightly in a little hand, or knotted in the corner of a handkerchief, a daily offering. If the cent is forgotten, or lost on the way, the child goes home for another, that is all, and has scolding for carelessness into the bargain. The littlest children go to it—used to go, rather, for indeed this should all be in the past tense rather than the present, the cent school being a thing of the past and, as one might say, a great-ant of the present kindergarten, an old woman from the country, who is rather plain in her ways. Eunice Swain would have thought a kindergarten foolishness. Her children did not come to school to be taught, but to work. She put them on benches in her big kitchen, because it was warm there, and sat in the dining room door and taught them, or chastised them, as the spirit bade her. She taught the three Rs, and manners, and truth telling, and above all, humility, impressing on these infants daily that they belonged to a generation, not of victors exactly, but of weaklings.—L. H. Sturdevant, in Atlantic.

Plenty Good Enough.

Aunt Chloe was burdened with the support of a worthless husband, who beat her when he was sober, and who she dutifully nursed and tended when he came home bruised and battered from a fighting spree.

One Monday morning she appeared at the drug store and asked the clerk for "a right pow'ful liniment foh achin' in de bones."

You might try some of this St. Peter's Prescription, anny; it's an old and popular remedy, cures cuts, bruises, aches and sprains. One dollar the bottle. Good for man and beast.

Aunt Chloe looked at the dollar bottle and then dubiously at her fat purse. "Ain't yo' got some foh 50 cents?" she ventured. "Some foh me!" only beasts. Ah want it foh ma' ol' man."—Lippincott's.

A Boy's Essay on Ducks.
A schoolboy assigned to prepare an essay on ducks, wrote: "The duck is a low, heavy-set bird composed mostly of meat and feathers. He is a mighty poor singer, having a hoarse voice, caused by getting so many frogs in his neck. He likes the water and carries a toy balloon in his stomach to keep from sinking. The duck has only two legs and they are set so far back on his running gears by nature that they come pretty near missing his body. Some ducks when they get big have cranes on their tails and are called drakes. Drakes don't hate to set or hatch, but just loaf, go swimming and eat. If I was to be a duck I'd rather be a drake."—National Food Magazine.

Louis Schriber, 32 years old, in his day known as one of the world's greatest cornetists, died last week at Los Angeles. He accompanied both Adaline Patti and Ole Bull, the violinist, on concert tours as cornet soloist.

They Have a Definite Purpose.
Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rose Glaser, Terre Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a severe case of kidney trouble, and spending much money for so-called cures, I found Foley Kidney Pills the only medicine that gave me a permanent cure. I am again able to be up and attend to my work. I shall never hesitate to recommend them." Lee & Osgood Co.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor, it is made in just one minute. No 30 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Lee & Osgood Co.

Doctors for the Well.

There seems to be much to commend the practice of employing a doctor at so much per year to visit the homes of his clients, watch their diet, clothing, habits, the sanitary condition of their person and homes; to teach them the laws of health and how to temperate in eating, drinking, bathing, exercising, recreation and work. People who are never sick are the ones to whom this should apply with special force, for there always comes the day when sickness knocks at their door. The old adage: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is as good to-day as when it was uttered centuries ago.—Boston Traveler.

Introducing Mr. Spencer.
Harry was walking with another boy when he was joined by a friend a year or so older and inclined to manners.
"Introduce me, Harry," the newcomer whispered, pompously.

Harry twisted, reddened and at last turned to his companion with "Jim, have you ever seen Gilbert Spencer?"
"No," the other boy answered.

"Well," Harry blurted out, reddening still more and jerking his thumb over his shoulder toward the newcomer, "that's him!"—Lippincott's.
